

The Man and the Moon

EXT. MOON SURFACE.

ASTRONAUT is looking up at space. We see he is alone. No method of transportation, just him in the barren moon land.

ASTRONAUT
My name is John Kai.

He begins trekking across the moon.

ASTRONAUT
I've been stranded on this ball of rock and dust.

He looks up at the earth above.

ASTRONAUT
If you can hear this message, I require assistance.

He looks out over the emptiness ahead of him.

ASTRONAUT
If you can hear this, I'm probably already dead.

Blackness

WHISPERING VOICE
Keep going.

Feet moving across the land.

WHISPERING VOICE
You're so close now. Come on.

At the edge of a huge crater.

WHISPERING VOICE
I want to help you.

ASTRONAUT
Where are you?

WHISPERING VOICE
I'm here. I'm here. Keep going.

ASTRONAUT
I don't see anybody.

MOON
Look down, you can't miss me!

He looks into the crater and sees nothing.

ASTRONAUT
There's nothing there.

MOON
Nothing?! Who you calling a nothing! I'll have you know my gravitational pull is much greater than yours!

ASTRONAUT
What?

MOON
Did I just call myself fat?

ASTONAUT
You're, the moon?

MOON
Bingo! Give the man a prize!

Pan out to reveal the moon has a face, and is looking up where the astronaut is if we can make him out.

ASTRONAUT
Oh this is just great.

MOON
We're going to have SO much fun
together!

EXT. MOON SURFACE.

Astronaut is lying down.

MOON
Aw, buddy, whats the matter? You want some ice cream?

ASTRONAUT
I want to go home.

The moon makes a face and a house appears on the moon.

MOON
There ya go! It's got plush carpeting, two and a half baths,
the fridge is full of my homemade salsa.

ASTRONAUT

No, I want to go to earth.

Astronaut looks up towards earth.

MOON

Earth huh? I haven't been there in a long time. Last time, I got realllllly drunk.

ASTRONAUT

Um, moon?

MOON

Well, we can make that happen! LETS GO!

The moon starts laughing crazy as he starts heading towards earth.

EARTH

Oh, this is just great.
